The Civil Rights Era Lesson 1 The Civil Rights Movement

During World War II, African Americans had greater opportunities in jobs and the military. After the war, they wanted more opportunities at home, too. Changes did not come quickly and the Civil Rights Movement began. In 1896 the United States Supreme Court ruled in a case called Plessy v. Ferguson. The court ruled that “separate but equal” facilities for African Americans were constitutional. This decision allowed for the creation of separate schools, public facilities, and other services for African Americans. It was not until 1954 that the Supreme Court ruled in Brown v. Board of Education that such segregation was unconstitutional.
